Before the era of Ballroads, Cairo had a commending position as a centre of com-merce and navigation. This importance of merce and navigation. This importance of position she still possesses, but has now the additional advantage of being a great railroad e-n re, a number of the most important railroads in the Valley of the Miss, saippi converging to and having their terminithere. Among these coming from the north are the great lilmois Central Railroad, which traverses the entire state of Illinois from its extreme northers and horthese stern in its countern limit, and by its convention. to its southern limits, and by its connections extends into all the great northwestern grain producing States; the Cairo and Vinconnes, extending from Cairo to the City of Vincennes, in the state of Indians, where its connections aford direct radical comits connections aford direct relicost com-munications with all Eastern cities; and the Cairo & St. Louis Railroad, anording a direct railroad communication with the City of St. Louis and all the railroads cen-tering there. The roads coming from the South are the New Orleans, Jackson and Great Northern and the Mobile and Onio Railroads, which give direct railroad com-munication with the cities of Mobile and New Orleans, and other Southern Atlantic sea ports, and by connecting roads with all DEPOSITS received and a general banking Enterprise Savings New Orleans, and other Southern Atlantic sea ports, and by consecting roads with all the country south of Cairo; and coroning from the southwest is the Cairo, Arkansas and Texas Railroad, which seffords similar communication with Southern Missouri, Arkansas and Texas, and the principal diffice of those States. This last-named road will give, also, direct councertion with the Texas and Pacific Road when it is comeleted, thus giving direct communication with the principal ports of the Pacific Ocean. These railroads, terminating at Cairo, are now all completed and in successful opera-CITY NATIONAL BANK, CAIRO now all completed and in successful opera-tion, those in Illinois coming into the city on a bank of each of the rivers. Ohio and Mississippi, and terminating at their confu-cuce, thus encircling the city. The Holly springs, Brownsville and Ohio River Rail-rand and the Cale and Tennasan River road, and the Cairo and Tennessee River Railroad, which will both terminate at Cairo, are in course of construction and will soon be completed, and other railroads both in lilinois and in States south or the Ohio river, which will also terminate at Cairo, are projected, and serangements made to build them. The construction of these will greatly increase the railroad communications of Cairo.

The testimony of our best citizens, of all classes, establishes the fact, that CHERRY PECTORAL will and does relieve and cure the afflicting disorders of the Throat and Lungs beyond any other medicine. The most dangerous affections of the Pulmonary Organs yield to its power; and cases of Communication, cured by this preparation, are publicly known, so remarkable as hardly to be believed, were they act proven beyond dispute. As a remedy it is adequate, on which the public may rely for full protection. By euring Coughs, the forerunners of more serious disease, it saves unnumbered lives, and an amount of suffering not to be computed. It challenges trial, and convinces the most sceptical. Every family should keep it on hand as a protection against the early and unperceived attacks of Pulmonary Affections, which are easily met at first, but which become incurable, and too often fatal, if neglected. Tender lungs need this defence; and it is unwise to be without it. As a safeguard to children, amid the distressing diseases which beet the Threat and Chest of childhood, CHERRY PECTORAL is invaluable; for, by its timely use, multitudes are rescuted from premature graves, and saved to the love and affection centred on them. It acts speedily and surely against ordinary colds, securing sound and health-restoring sleep. No one will suffer troublesome Influenza and painful Bromachitia, when they know how easily they can be cured.
